

Multilingual Writing Summit

Workshops to Support Multilingual Student Writers at Mason

Friday, January 23 from 12:00 pm to 3:00 pm in SUB I 1508

Principles of Teaching Multilingual Student Writers

12:00-12:50, SUB I, 1508

In this hour-long workshop, Karyn Mallett and Anna Habib will discuss general principles and best practices for supporting multilingual student writers at all levels.

Feedback and Commenting for Multilingual Student Writers

1:00-1:50, SUB I, 1508

Continuing their discussion of best practices for supporting multilingual writers, Karyn Mallett and Anna Habib will help participants learn and implement effective feedback strategies on written work. Participants will discuss samples of work written by both graduate and undergraduate multilingual writers.

Verbal Support for Multilingual Student Writers

2:00-2:50, SUB I, 1508

Julie Stoll will present on "recasting," a verbal correction technique that can help multilingual students without directly commenting on papers. Participants will learn how to provide unintrusive language support to students during conversations and office hours.

Sponsored By

Writing across the Curriculum

Center for Teaching & Faculty Excellence
PROMOTE • SUPPORT • CELEBRATE

Please contact wac@gmu.edu or ctfe@gmu.edu with questions!

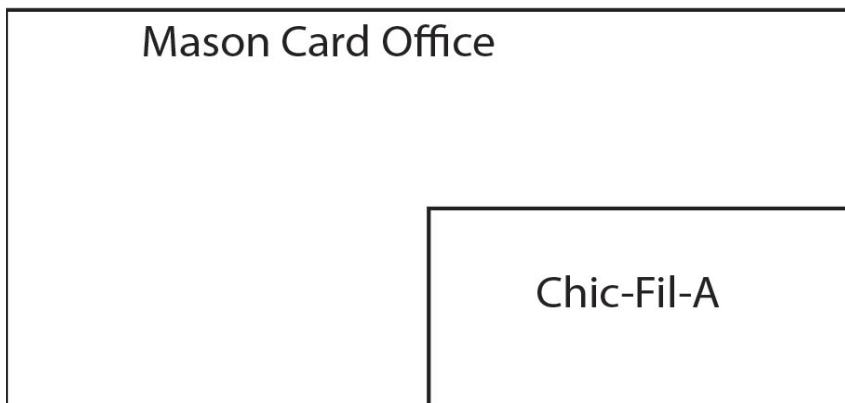

How to Find SUB 1, 1508

<-- Courtyard

<-- Student Services

<-- Rathskeller

